btw, sorry this is up so late in the day. I was at a doctor appointment then had to take my car to the mechanic. Been a busy day.

Deadmau5 - December 2, 2019, 6:31 pm

Woohoo. I've been waiting for this all day ?

Btw, I hope you're okay brotha!

The doctor was for my feet. Having some issues with my toes. Turns out my Crocs are the cause. Makes me sad because I love my Crocs but apparently they are too soft for a flat footed person and I been pronating causing my toes to swell and cause me plenty of pain. Been dealing with it for about 4-5 months.

My car (PT Cruiser) has an electrical problem somewhere. It could be a short, something with the ignition, or the PCM (car computer) is bad. I'm hoping it's just a wire short which will be the easiest and cheapest to repair. A new PCM is probably going to cost me $400-$600. And don't laugh at my PT Cruiser. It's a nice ride, convertible, and it's my junker car that I let my kids drive. My main car is a Mini Cooper S Convertible manual transmission. It's my 2nd Mini, love to drive that thing.

That's my wife's car. I drive it frequently enough but I prefer a 4-cylinder car actually. The smaller the better.

Something like a Subaru WRX would be awesome.

I do miss the Mustang GT we had though, but I totalled it in the rain. :(?

Tempted to get it for the award.

Not sure how I feel about that box tho haha, dont think it'll fit in well anywhere in my layout ;(

Fuck it. Going to throw the $400 in btc I was trying to exchange on some cards. I hit the 250k bytes on both of the previous BOGO sales, so let's keep the good luck rolling!

(we all know I'll just lose the bytes on slots and sports book)

Or you could save them and buy scratchcards until you have 1 million bytes.

@Omniscient@ just find some shoeglue and put some Dr. Scholl's pads in them. The ones with the inclined center for an arch.

i see everyone with thousands of bytes

I guess in the short term it will, I expect they will still average around $5 for the next few months, but when new features get added, I expect they will rise.

SIM-403479 - December 8, 2019, 1:27 pm

Just bought another before this runs out!

1 x 25k

1 x 10k

spiral - December 8, 2019, 4:07 pm

Bought another one like I planned. Lets see how it goes!

I'm buying my last bogo $100 scratcher. Wish me luck!

Rally the Bulls - December 8, 2019, 7:33 pm

Sad to see this go already. Funds should be clearing in the next day or two and I wanted to grab a BOGO $100 scratch card. :(

Hopefully if BOGO ever returns I'll be more prepared. :(

Windows - December 8, 2019, 8:13 pm

Decided to say fuck it and copped the $100 scratcher.. lets see what my luck is like.

Might buy a few more if this one is good.

Rip man, how much did you spend on the BOGO? Could've been juicy profit if you only bought 1 or 2

Rip, still with 165k you could've made like $750+ if you sold for $5/1k

Nah i quit gambling, used to play a lot of slots + roulette on here but after i lost like 12k bytes which isn't much I just decided to stop, this decision will probably help me in the long run and prevent me going to casinos and losing way more.

Another reaosn I quit is because of the 13's of blackjack, i swear i always get a face card or 10 everytime i get a 13.

Makes me sad because I love my Crocs but apparently they are too soft for a flat footed person and I been pronating causing my toes to swell and cause me plenty of pain. Been dealing with it for about 4-5 months.

My car (PT Cruiser) has an electrical problem somewhere. It could be a short, something with the ignition, or the PCM (car computer) is bad. I'm hoping it's just a wire short which will be the easiest and cheapest to repair. A new PCM is probably going to cost me $400-$600. And don't laugh at my PT Cruiser. It's a nice ride, convertible, and it's my junker car that I let my kids drive. My main car is a Mini Cooper S Convertible manual transmission. It's my 2nd Mini, love to drive that thing.

I'm flat footed and I have feet problems, wouldn't soft be better for your feet, why is it worst?

Maybe I've done it wrong for years
