Thread: Blog Entries Question

Fugg - December 7, 2019, 12:57 pm

Are blog entries ever "Denied" or do they just stay pending? I have had a couple blog entires pending for about a week now.

Same bro I feel your pain

Ive had 2 denied that were denied pretty quick when the blog system came out.

I got 4 approved now took awhile for them to get approved.

I got some pending now just waiting to see if they get approved or denied it says they were posted 1 min ago but I posted them a few weeks ago.

Wish they would get approved or denied all ready for I could start working on some new ones if they are gonna get denied I want that blog award real bad.

Yes blogs are denied, If they are poorly worded or just not any useful information then why would they get accepted.

They are deleted, not denied. I have some blogs I have to review. Please be patient.
