Thread: Goodbye HF!

datguy.dev - December 8, 2019, 5:51 pm

Greetings,

I just wanted to say my farewells. I've been using HF for 5 years or so and met quite a few gems on here. I've gotten to a point where I don't learn much anymore so no use in sticking around.

Best of luck to everyone! ?

AwakenGP - December 8, 2019, 5:58 pm

Glad you had fun on the forum! Farewell bro, good luck with everything

Nachfolger - December 8, 2019, 5:59 pm

I couldn't justify your reasoning, but best of luck elsewhere my dude.

Psilocybe - December 8, 2019, 5:59 pm

Goodbye! I hope you've been able to learn whatever you came here for & more! Something in me tells me you'll be back eventually :)

Until then,
Peace out homie

Oof, that might actually be a ban. You're definitely NOT allowed to buy/sell HF accounts.

Back in the day you could ask staff members to close your account.

eXceptional - December 8, 2019, 6:23 pm

I don't understand why people just close their accounts and leave. Hack Forums is not a high school that you have to leave at a certain point.

I can't comment when it comes to leisure.

He was being selfish. OP said that he has nothing much to learn from Hack Forums these days which is why he is leaving.

Nothing wrong with that, as stated in the rules. If you disagree that's okay, I was just wondering what happened to a COCH veteran such as myself. I found my answer and decided to go ahead and read all the comments.

I'm sure a kind veteran like yourself would understand :)
