Thread: Lucky clover awards

J4mmy - December 9, 2019, 3:40 am

Hi,

I couldn't find info so I ask from thy wise ones, how does one obtain any of the three clover awards? Is it just random post that juts hits the jackpot when posted or does omni pick them by hand?

Smexy - December 9, 2019, 3:41 am

Posts that have more then 150 characters have a chance of getting you the clover award within seconds after posting.

about 0.01% or something for the easiest one.

Maybe down to like 0.005-0.0025 for the others

These either could be obtained from a lucky post (not anymore though) or from a scratch-card win (not entirely sure if this was ever implemented).

Well guess that makes them even more rare now

Thank you for the answers. So I suppose that I will start typing longer answers and more in-depth where it is possible to have higher chances of getting this GLORIOUS award.

Baby Wolf - December 9, 2019, 6:14 am

I have 0 awards.

It's not that hard to get one. Go get one Reward award, for example post in the lounge enough times during a time period and get yourself a lounge head :)

J4mmy , the Clover awards are actually discontinued and have been for a while now.
The last Clover was given out on 11-30-2018

The new "chance" awards are the Gift's, the Green/Blue/and Purple Gift awards are all the new chance awards.

They work the same way as the Clovers do however you're able to use the Gifts with the Hack Game, but if you do get one as of right now just keep it as it's not worth getting rid of the award yet with the Hack Game.

Even if they upgrade the hack game, I don't think I would use my award on it again. Already used one and got like $100 LOL

Damn! Was it the Green Gift that you used for the in-game cash?

Yeah I would have been more upset if it was another color.

I really want to get the Blue and Purple ones, especially the Purple one.
Purple is my favorite color lol.

Just make sure you don't open it!

Yeah no way. I already have the Green Gift right now and keep seeing it on my Hack Game profile page but am in no way going to be opening it lol.

Lol that'd be an odd concept that's for sure.

I just love the whole Award Goal system in general, it's such a cool aspect of HF now. Before you had to either purchase the donation awards or earn the OG awards, now you have more of a chance to get some really nice awards with this system.

I really like how we now have donation awards, goal awards, and the OG awards.

So I guess I got lucky? SRPP posts sure helped.

Chief - December 9, 2019, 10:23 am

I never did get lucky and snag a clover when they were around. Missed my chance for more pixels damnit
