Good evening,

this retard called julius (julius#0166 on Discord) is going around on alts offering services related to cybersecurity and reversing. He's been banned multiple times and just posts bullshit.

I added him on an alt to ask how much it would be to crack a program. I sent him a simple crackme I made (pretty easy, should be doable for someone of his knowledge). He then claimed it would cost $50 to crack. I agreed, afterwards he wanted me to send another $50 because it apparently contained a virus. He added my other Discord account (the one that made the crackme) and claimed that it was infected, he threw around the words ransomware and virus even though the file has no malicious code in it.

Claims that my crackme is malware: <https://i.imgur.com/cuyGtcj.png>

Needs $50 to "make the virus neutral": <https://i.imgur.com/imvpBHd.png>

Some shit AV saying that it's infected (might be the packer though):

After saying that it's not infected on my main account, he proceeded to say it's malicious. I offered him to show him the source code of the crackme, he agreed.

Screenshot of the code: <https://i.imgur.com/ZJmYCOQ.png>

He then sent a screenshot of him having the file "cracked" to my alt account, he probably just made a program that outputs the same strings as I do.

The credentials he entered in his screenshot (even though it's blurry) don't match up with the ones I hardcoded.

Image of his "proof": <https://i.imgur.com/9DeF6ci.jpg>

Obviously he's trying to scam me for something that should be like 10mins worth of work.

Afterwards he wanted me to pay with Domino's giftcards lmao

If someone wants to fuck his e-mail over, please go ahead.

He's had multiple accounts on here, most are banned.

He apparently is from Patna, India (shitty city) and calls himself an "Indie game developer".

<https://github.com/AyushRaj0> <https://brainly.in/question/5558053>

Sadly he deleted his messages asking me if I can help him crack a .jar file that's license protected (aka: something he wants to charge for from another thread, <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6030993>). Posted his shitty Discord username there, too.

Anyway, stay safe from stupid people with 500000 banned alts that try to scam you :)

Best regards & have a nice evening,

You're a retarded cuck that deserves to die - still good job scamming for $1000 on here, that's probably more than most Indians make in 10 years.

Anyway, my computer alone is worth more than the apartment you live in so I'd suggest to go scam on other forums or actually work for your money. You're not reputable, you're stupid.
