While applications are currently accepted through discord for normal users, this may change to our enjo website.

All applicants are required to join the server before submitting their application.
Staff members are not paid, this is for hobby only.

To apply, you may submit a reply on this thread, PM me, or go on discord, with the following format:

Code Name:

Age:

IGN:

How long have you been playing TruthCraft?

Why do you want to be staff?

Which rank should we give you and why?

What experience do you have with being staff on servers?

Do you know the commands?

If someone is swearing, or being mean, what do you do?

If someone is abusing a glitch or "hacking", what do you do?

If someone is griefing, what do you do?

What makes you stand out from others?

Why should we choose you?

What can you bring to the team?

What can you bring to the server?

What are your skills?

What are your honest weaknesses and how can you improve them?

How much can you play per day and when?

Can you Voice Chat?

We are more likely to hire you if you are able to voice chat.
