Thread: Whats restricted?

Okay so im working on making a newer updated banner now that I got my IRL squad getting into HF. So im gonna get into my profile being me. We're all a bunch of has beens, we dont do anything unethical or blackhat or unmoral anymore. Just i still like the street theme on my stuff. With that being said what are the restrictions on what pictures i can use to make my banner? i know upload at my own risk, and self incrimination is bad, FBI watches HF all thats cool i dont care i follow the laws now so they can watch me if they want ive already got in trouble and served my time lol. If theres a section going over the rules of what can be in pictures point me in the right direction please? if not if anyone knows them what are they?

The Help Docs clearly state what's not allowed.
