Thread: Discord Services Legitimate?

Hitler - December 20, 2019, 9:57 am

There are people who offer services such as CApp Transfer, or PP Transfer I found out about after reading a article. Anyone had any experiences with these types of services, or know if they are legitimate?

If someone is trying to lure you to discord for a sketchy money service, I'd run the other way as fast as possible.

Not attempting to lure, there are marketplaces on there, multiple of them containing hundreds of users, with vouches, shops, vetted and un vetted sellers. Much like a account shop. And some of the offers they have for sale are interesting and wonder if anyone has experience. I wouldn't be wondering if it was legit if it was just one discord with like 10 members in it attempting to sell me some weird fake shit.

Most of those vouches are fake. Overall discord services are really shady, if it's not serious amount you can try it, but don't pay too much. Just deal with caution

Just deal with caution Yeah I was going to try like $40 for a $150 Amazon GC, or like a CApp Transfer. It's bonus time anyway so there's money to blow so why not give it a try. Also doing from a vetted seller.

Hope it goes well man. If it is too good to be true, it probably isn't.

That's a hefty discount for some AGC. Wouldn't be surprised if they're carded. Be safe homie.

If you get carded stuff 97% you will end up ripped off, due to chargeback and so on.

who evers account it is sent from can get in contact with cash app and possibly get the payment reversed, or just chargeback through their bank lol

I don't believe there is a "refund" button like paypal, but its still quite easy just call the bank tell them its unauthorized and get your money back very easy ?

SIM-2849784 - December 20, 2019, 6:34 pm

I've never seen any of these services work before, I've only seen people get scammed by them. I've never even seen payments arrive and then get reversed, only scams... literally!

I'd be really cautious because the market places you're on might be staged as well to appear like people have been giving others "reputation" when it's all just faked. If it's setup to be staged, it'd be easy to do this. It's only difficult to do this if it's a legitimate market for many things that's owned and operated by people who have nothing to do with the vendors you're looking at the offered services from.

Be really careful and remember that you can get into trouble if you try something like this which turns out to be true. You could get your accounts banned on places like PayPal for being involved with suspicious or fraudulent activity and potentially even get the blame for the whole thing if money you're given turns out to be stolen!

It's likely not worth the risk of getting scammed or in trouble.

Popstar - December 20, 2019, 6:37 pm

Nah still like this is Never ever real. Dont even waste your time. They make it sound good and provide fake proofs but it's just most likely an Indian scamming your bitch ass 100% of the time

Mycroft Holmes - December 20, 2019, 6:55 pm

I would wholeheartedly advice you to DEAL with them. You heard me right, go ahead and buy their service or whatever you want.

They may be shady and you may be reading comments people leave in this thread advising you against dealing on that Discord but my advice is don't listen to them.

Your funny little voice in your head tells you "let me try.. it's just $40.. if I lose I lose..." - listen to it.

This is the only way to get rid of the funny little voice and learn a fucking lesson you will remember for the rest of your life.

EDIT: If you do decide to learn a lesson, I'm sure you will thank me in the future for this advice.

Bear - December 20, 2019, 7:08 pm

Wait are you talking about the loaders who will send you $1000 for $100? Lmfao.

If you want to be entangled into money laundering and heists, then sure, go for it.
