Nice giveaway. Well our plans is to spent our Christmas with our parents maybe 2-3 days stay and bonding with relatives and loveones. I really missed sleeping long hours in our family home but ofcourse I wouldn't do that because spending Christmas with them was one of the most wonderful day of the whole year.

Hoping you guys have a wonderful Christmas this year. God bless everyone.

Thanks for the giveaway ?

Well, nothing really exciting, have to work the day before, and the day after. My parents move with my little sister to see my other sister who lives pretty far. However I'm not a child anymore, doesn't really matter to be honest, I'll go on my computer and chill, work some and learn new things about computing and hacking.

Michael - December 22, 2019, 2:52 am

Sure why not.

I want some, thanks OP.

Sent! 600 bytes left - 6 people!

TheChaosKiller - December 22, 2019, 4:13 am

I'll take some bytes if they're still going! Thanks in advance!

In my excitement, I forgot to add my plans. I'm going to be seeing some old friends on the day, probably spend the morning looking through old photos of friends who aren't with us this year and might attempt building a model I was gifted last Christmas but never got round to making due to circumstances out of my control. Got some gifts I'm dropping off at the children's hospital too, but will likely do that the night before so they can wake up to them.

Chevy - December 22, 2019, 4:15 am

Thanks for the giveaway, OP.

I plan on doing nothing but spending time with my girlfriend and our 3 kids.

The same thing that we usually do every year because we're too broke to afford gifts or travel.

Soaaponarope - December 22, 2019, 4:32 am

For Christmas I plan on going to my bosses house and having a couple drinks and dinner.
Don't normally celebrate christmas so this will be a little new to me

Simplicity! - December 22, 2019, 4:57 am

I'll gladly take some off your hands. Thanks.

Tintin - December 22, 2019, 5:04 am

You're like one of the 3 sages, thank you for doing this.

I plan to spend more time with family, be grateful for the friends I have, for my life, and revisit my strategy to 2020.

itcorp - December 22, 2019, 5:19 am

This will be my very first giveaway to enter. Hoping to get some bytes.

This Christmas we planning to stay at home because family will be having a reunion. Exchange gifts are very exciting and lots of food on the table for sure. Have a blessed Christmas to all. Thanks OP for this giveaway.
