Thread: Convo Changes - HF Group Chats

Xerotic - December 23, 2019, 5:10 pm

We've been updating HF's Convo (Conversation) system the past few days with some new updates. When viewing your Convo inbox you will now see two tabs. The left tab will be the same unsorted inbox as before. It'll have your individual messages and your party messages. The right hand tab will be your Comrades (formally Buddies) and HF Group chats. That's right. Official HF groups now have their own custom Convo chats.

Here is an example:

We hope that all groups can find use with the new on-site group chat. Thank you and enjoy.

Mr Kewl - December 23, 2019, 5:12 pm

Oh damn, that's really cool.
Will try this and tell see.

vyactor - December 23, 2019, 5:22 pm

That was really a great addition.
We also expect the function of being able to delete the sent messages specifically and obviously the most important function of messages getting seen.

Sir - December 23, 2019, 6:49 pm

I figured something like this was bound to happen eventually. Excellent addition, keep up the good work.

Pyro - December 23, 2019, 7:18 pm

Been waiting for this sh*t long time ago. Cheers

Vitani - December 24, 2019, 7:43 am

I like the new update! Good to see that you're actively improving the HF Convo feature. Keep up the good work!

Chief - December 24, 2019, 7:44 am

Excellent update bro. Looks good!

Lorem Ipsum - December 24, 2019, 7:46 am

Great update! I only have two people in my Comrades list, but it does help sort them out when having a conversation.
Amazing work my man ? Happy Holidays Xerotic!

Nachfolger - December 24, 2019, 7:47 am

Neat feature. When it was first released, any time you sent a message to someone, the convo would show up twice in the list. Either way it's fixed now.

One thing I find strange, I can't seem to connect to the Hackforums group chat.. Hmm.

iNviZ - December 24, 2019, 8:51 am

Excellent job man, great addition for sure.

Zeus - December 24, 2019, 9:41 am

Hey are the messages kept in group chat or disposable like other msgs

they are kept

eXceptional - December 24, 2019, 11:25 am

This is simply awesome. Groups can now truly boycott Discord. I've seen most groups have discord servers and this feature brings everyone together on 1 platform.

Bastille - December 24, 2019, 11:27 am

Nice improvement for this feature ?

Omniscient - December 24, 2019, 11:54 am

Quote:no love for crews?

Probably not until we do more with them in the Hack Game (*coming 2020).

Nachfolger Because you are permanently banned.

Zeus Good question, I think they are kept. Xerotic knows for sure how he coded it.

eXceptional Yes, that's our hope to give members a reason to stop using Discord so much. I know we have a lot of work to do still for features into Convo but give us some time.

I'm glad the messages are kept it's good now it'll be easier to do more stuff on here rather than discord and keeping everything on site.

May invest in crew/group soon and bring a group chat for that!

There is 1 thing for sure I feel should be changed. Being a user-friendly forum the Buddy section should be before the public.

Biggy - December 24, 2019, 12:21 pm

A integrated voice chat would be super dope. Not even sure if that's possible.

P.S: nice updates.

I wanna voice chat with u baby

Crimin4L - December 24, 2019, 5:24 pm

Hey Xerotic would it be possible for you to make it look like the HF Group Chat? Like how the names appear above someones message?

Nah for the new groups chat,

You see how peoples name are above their messages? I'd like to see that in the groups private chat, cause it isn't a 1 on 1 convo :P

let me know if you want a userscript for that

I got u babey ?

SIM-3257834 - December 24, 2019, 5:35 pm

Could we also some of the commands like /roll , it makes it easier to do group giveaways.

Haha, yea thats awesome. I used to code Java back in the day when I was younger but some bs happened on the internet, so I quit everything. I wish I never did because it would be so useful today, and cause I would've gone onto javascript after a while.

I hope he does add it tho because would be a good feature to see who is talking lolol but no worries if he doesn't its no biggie, unless you just wanna make it for fun then I understand xD

Cooligan - December 24, 2019, 6:08 pm

Oh man.. I smell the start of something amazing with this new group chat feature.

If one day custom emoji's and other features are implemented I can see it impacting offsite chat platforms drastically.

Wicked cool to see this guys.

It's late, and I haven't tested it more than once yet.. But I'm hoping it works otherwise. Aside from the fact that it removes messages with a link, I think it should work fine in a group chat environment.

If I ever get around to it, I'll make it display the usernames for the existing messages when you open the convo. Of course, a native solution from Xerotic would be more ideal.

Haha awesome mate, thank you <3

I will implement it later when I am on my PC :D

Vyrkfrir - December 26, 2019, 6:31 am

The changes definitely make navigation of convos much more streamlined.
Keen to see what's to come next ?

Fortunate - December 26, 2019, 8:06 am

Amazing feature Xerotic, it's going to be very useful at least for me.

If anyone wants to add me to a group chat, feel free to do so.

Mr Kewl - January 24, 2020, 9:08 pm

What's the ETA on notification for the groups?

Or is it a feature you planning to add?

Crypt - January 24, 2020, 9:20 pm

When we were speaking Russian in the chat and you go "changes buddy list to comrades" I didn't think you actually did it LOL.
