Not a fan of SUVs, but awesome car man. Congrats, hopefully the first of many beautiful cars you'll buy in the future.

Been always a fan of SUV type.

But seriously, the model at back of the vehicle really frustrated me.

Can I have some picture from back too please?

I doubt it's not what I like.

The back part looks neat. Not sure why it the back part wasn't that impressing one when seen from front.

Although, it looks dope and congratulations.

My neighbour owns this, very appealing car. Make the best of it and take good care of it, it's an Audi.

Some black rims would make it a BOMB. And also blacked out Audi logo front and back.
Nice car

Room for another member? Quality green is included ?

@OP,

You have bought yourself a great car! I'm not a big fan of 'large' cars but these are great for family trips as well as a solo road trip.

Luxury car for groceries, fast model and I love Audi. May I ask what you did to get the money? A job, HF earnings, or different?

Voxi - December 29, 2019, 5:14 am

Nice car man. I like the audi rs3 but some black trims on that would make it sick.
