Psychedelic. - December 25, 2019, 8:17 am

Posting to enter, I think you messed up the ending dates because you said 2x 12k bytes and 1x 4000. Not sure, just pointing that out. I do have an open dispute but it's from a member who was closed for scamming, and he opened it to try and get his money back, no legitimate issue. Besides that, I am not in negative pop and 20/0/0 business rating.

Soaaponarope - December 25, 2019, 8:18 am

No, one post only per entry. The contest isn't over it's just done for a third. Your comment and my reply won't count at the drawing. Which means the following post containing an entry will count as the next number, and so forth. ?

I know how to send Bytes. I contact the members who have won, because if they would decide to leave HF as their NYE resolution.. I'll draw another winner. Just give the member some time, 2/3 prizes are already claimed. ?

It should be up to the winner to decide if they want to give their prize to another person, not you. They could have decided to leave HF, but that doesn't mean that they gonna get disqualified for that after winning. They might wanna sell them, gamble them away, or donate to someone else.
