Thread: Might have turned \$35 USD into \$433 USD in 1 click.

Mr. Robot - December 26, 2019, 8:03 am

Technically 4 clicks but the first 3 were all losses. I had 48 credits so I did 2x 4 credit bets then 2x 20 credit bets.

They haven't paid it out yet, they have manual withdrawals on right now so they might cuck me but will let you know what happens.

Bitcoinvideocasino - I don't think anyone should play there till I get my payout even if you are using a few dollars. I've never had them wait to pay me out before.

I love those lucky moments when I have a very small amount left and I hit a high paying combo!

Miles Teller - January 3, 2020, 7:21 am

Damn good job OP. I turned $100 into $1000 on bovada sports gambling. Cashed out with a check, bank won't honor it cause it's from a foreign country. Now I gotta try and get it reimbursed into BTC

funtela - January 3, 2020, 7:48 am

Have you gotten the payout yet? I used to gamble on this site a lot. Slots specifically. I had some great winnings.

Cooligan - January 4, 2020, 7:31 am

Damn man, you and this bitcoin casino gambling are on fire lol.

I've never tried an online bitcoin casino. Many irl casinos but never online. Something about it just feels like the house (computer) will win the majority of the time, but after seeing your threads I'm starting to think differently. ?

bluerror - January 5, 2020, 1:35 am thats a damn nice win bro, congrats!

Wondering the same thing. Would like to give it a shot, but only if they pay out every time.

Mr. Robot please let us know how things turned out for you and the payout request. ?

I know this is old and I'm sure you've figured it out but any bank should be able to cash a foreign check. I cashed multiple from Bovada for over $1000 before I started withdrawing with Bitcoin. If anything ask them to run it by their regional manager.

Did you manage to receive the payout yet? I have won a few times on new sites and they never came through.

Mr-mutt - March 7, 2020, 3:01 am

Hi mate, did you end up reviving the payout that you had won? would love to know the outcome of this scenario cause Id steer clear of this site if its not paying out wins..

KingLeRoy - March 13, 2020, 3:19 pm

I might have to start gambling
