Thread: Can someone call a number?

this_site_sucks - December 26, 2019, 12:30 pm

Had a issue with someone who did some work on my headlights. I am trying to get a hold of them and just want to check to make sure they are not dodging my phone calls.

Just need someone in the USA to call a number, and when/IF the guy picks up, just say sorry wrong number.

Is this allowed? Anyone wanna help me out?

orrrrrrr (hear me out)

you could make a number yourself through a service like <https://www.textnow.com/> and call him yourself?

I got a free set of $1000 wheels and some weed due to a similar situation at a hackjob auto repair place. Agree with these guys, just show up.

OP, did you ever find out what happened? Did you get scammed by this guy? You should tell the story here.
