Thread: What you can expect of 2020

Tintin - December 29, 2019, 4:19 am

Nothing.

Expect nothing from 2020.

What you can expect is from yourself.

??? ???? ???? ?• May your arms and hands be big enough to handle what life throws at you.

??? ???? ???? ?• May you be wise enough to give value to what is really important and shut off what is not.

??? ???? ???? ?• May you be a sponge of the positive and a repellant of the negative.

Happy 2020.

Every year I expect a better year, since we learn from our mistakes and move on with better ways.

Same here, yet I notice that I often fall back into the routine of making some of the mistakes from last year. 2020 Sounds amazing and it writes amazing. My birthday will contain a lot of 2's which is a sign for me to do my best. This is how I look at 2020, full of mysteries, challenges and new adventures.

Voxi - December 29, 2019, 5:04 am

I'm expecting to make more money this year than last year :)

Exactly! One thing to add on top, is I expect it to go by faster than 2019!

I cannot agree with you on that one buddy. I expect 2020 to have 366 days, which makes your statement a contradiction xD

Use what you learned in 2019 to have a good 2020.

That's what people have been saying for years. Never happens. Just be ready for whatever the fuck the new year throws at you and make the best out of it

Just gonna keep doing what I'm doing. Working and school. Probably quit using substances completely. It's about time.

Even if it just happens for one fleeting moment, I want to feel what it is to be alive again.
