Thread: Are dating sites an actually good traffic source?

Luca - December 30, 2019, 6:50 am

I've wanted to try out getting traffic from [BRAND NAME REMOVED]/Bumble however I'm looking for people from the USA but I'm from Europe which means I would have to pay around $5/mo for [BRAND NAME REMOVED] premium or whatever they call it

My question is: Is it worth trying to ewhore on dating sites and if so, should I be straightforward about selling or should I kind of lead them into it through a conversation

Hey,

Where are you from? If you are looking to ewhore full time send me a message with your Skype. We are looking for more affiliates + training included.

Just try switching the settings :)

Works wonders, [BRAND NAME REMOVED] doesn't do shit to check your actual position
