Mr. Robot - December 31, 2019, 1:28 am

Just refreshed and it logged me out. No new IP changes or anything and have updated password and sh!te but wondering if it was sitewide

Will re-enable Gauth in a few.

Checked a few peoples trustscans and seems like they didn't need to reauth so possibly they weren't logged out. Might be my side.

Shisho - December 31, 2019, 2:23 am

I was not logged out.

Edit: Incorrect.

BlackRaven - December 31, 2019, 2:35 am

Change your password to be sure and you'll be fine.

SIM-2501407 - December 31, 2019, 6:29 am

Mr Robot, I was not logged out.

Must have occurred on your side alone.

Invisible - December 31, 2019, 6:33 am

Must be your side as I experience the same thing with Reddit sometimes.

Goku - December 31, 2019, 6:46 am

Neither was I. But that is weird, doesn't that happen when someone else uses your cookies to login in which logouts your previous session. I don't know for sure, just guessing.

nCuX0 - December 31, 2019, 6:49 am

I think trustscan is not accurate. checked mine and it says: Number of Unique ISP's and IP's (last 30 days): 1 but i have been using 2 different ISP's and IP's.

Hopsin - December 31, 2019, 7:30 am

It's just you. Nothing on my side.

Omniscient - December 31, 2019, 9:16 am

Nothing suspicious at all on your account.

Are you aware that if you log out of HF on any device that it logs you out on all devices? This is a security measure to ensure you can close all sessions from just one device. Maybe you logged out on your mobile or something?

Interesting. Didn't know this.

Definitely not this unfortunately - was really weird

I actually didn't even realize this. Nice to know.

Xerotic - December 31, 2019, 10:17 am

It is possible that the cookie for login simply expired.

Cooligan - December 31, 2019, 2:01 pm

I wasn't logged out at all.

I actually recently reauth'd as well, not sure if that would have anything to do with it or not.

Trust scan (mybb) only logs IP on login. If you're already logged in and switch IPs it won't show on the trust scan. Staff can still see your actual IP.

I didn't either, so may just be you.
