Thread: How long do you guys chat with the dudes?

Kit3 - January 8, 2020, 11:40 am

Hey guys, ewhore noob here.

How long do you guys usually chat with them before the money talk starts to kick in? Half an hour? 3 hours?

I got 2 guys booking a fake date with me but they just bail when a little starbucks or taxi money comes into play. That was a good waste of 4 hours of my night.

I do on dating sites and whatsapp btw in case you're wondering.

Grim - January 8, 2020, 12:00 pm

4 hours dude jesus christ. I dont ewhore anymore but when i did like MAX i would spend if i was 90% sure i would get money is like 20 mins. Theres a bunch of signs you can tell when they are not gonna give you money. Once you learn those signs your good to go and you can just close the chat after even a few seconds or miniuts and move on to the next.

Kit3 - January 8, 2020, 12:02 pm

Holy shit what 20 mins?! I gotta step up my game.

How do you guys flow the conversation into money? Right from the get go or gradually hinting that money will be involved?

atari2001 - January 8, 2020, 12:16 pm

I'm Maximum talking 8-10 minutes. Ok I just started with ewhoring.

Only if an Indian guy writes I block him directly.

You gotta get to the point man. When i did ehworing i actually setup macros for responses and binded them to my razer mouse ?

I should say though if you get somone thats willing to get like plane tickets ect and send you hundreds then you can talk to him for more then an hour of course

You don't talk an hour with them until AFTER they pay you. They're already starved for attention and you are just giving it away for free.

Since you're using dating sites, the first time you talk to them should be 10 minutes or less. That's enough time to learn enough about them to tell if they can and will pay you. I wouldn't even bring up money in that first contact. Just use it to fish for information. Then hit the money angle hard the 2nd time and don't spend more than 20 minutes then.

Hmm hmm i see, i see...

This is very informative. Thanks alot guys. I honestly just started this 2 days ago and learning all by myself.

Took alot of good 12 years old photos in some old websites, download each pic one by one, photoshop each of them and finally hitting the sites. Got 100+ adds in minutes, but chatting is too exhausting for me.

Now i know that it's just my SE that needs improvement.

It depends on what kind of traffic ur getting, for an example If you're getting traffic from [BRAND NAME REMOVED] or other dating apps spend MAX 15-20 minutes actually showing intrest in them before asking for money. If you're getting traffic from Sfs just send a snap straight up saying "hi would you be intrested in buying my premium or whatever"

Back when i was ewhoring it was like this :

- instantly block indians/black guys
- Only chat for maximum 3-8 minutes. Sometimes I smell a timewaster from the way they type.
- Instant block if they send dick pics without paying first

Ikken - January 11, 2020, 1:21 am

5 min max , gotta sort Out the Trash ASAP , Guys who are willing dont ASK much Guys who say send Photo give me Photo you can Block instantly , Same with dick Pics , HI Guys too , (When you make clear that you only selling and want Buyers beforehand) Most Guys These days want their quick fix , dont be deluded by them

Kit3 - January 11, 2020, 6:09 am

Huh... i was under the impression that the earlier they took their dicks out, the easier it is to get money. Guess i was waaaaay off.

Guys who pay generally have some manners. The pushier and more demanding they are the less likely they are to pay. Dick picks, demands for nudes, nagging for meetups from the get go are 99% timewasters.

I don't talk more then a few minutes if that.

VANTABLxCK - January 11, 2020, 7:21 am

You can try and change your traffic to generate only buyers. Well, like post your prices in your profile/post, you can put a preview or two depending on the site, and make it clear you are only there for selling.

I ain't got nerves to talk to retards tbh, so max I spent is about half an hour and thats only if I see its going in the direction I want it to go.

Luca - January 11, 2020, 7:49 am

I usually talk to people for 5-10 minutes
