Thread: dhragon11 has Disputed a Contract with Imperium \(4483015 \)

I sent to the user $300 worth of BTC and he refuse to pay the agreed part with me. The transaction is

<https://blockstream.info/tx/9c84785486eddd66ad0dc82a59682d3426f192625a9c770cdf784f1f103c9985>

He delay the payment because there was no confirmaion but after one confirmation, he refuses to answer to my messages on HF.

He contacted me on discord (I had a different user name) and he try to buy BTC from me but me going first. He tried to impress me with his business profile on HF without still realizing that he talks with the same person that he just scammed. When I asked him about the open contract that he had (with me), he told me that the BTC payment was not made yet (but it has 9 conformations at that moment).

I can provide with further proofs, screen captures of the messages on HF, screen captures of the discord talk and so on.

Wow. Small amount to scam for. He's online right now so it's obvious he's ignoring you and his responsibilities. Another piece of shit...

Simba - January 9, 2020, 4:03 pm sorry you went through that op funny he pm'ed me saying he wanted to exchange with me. After I said you have a open dispute he didn't reply back. $300 smh such a little amount.

dhragon11 - January 10, 2020, 12:06 am

It was my mistake, I learned my lesson. I made several deals with unknown people, without MM and all went well.

The funny thing is that, after I sent him BTC, he contacted me over discord without knowing that he is talking to the same person he just scammed (I had different user name on discord), trying to scam me again; when he realize it, leaves the server.

Below is the discussion on discord, until he realize that it's me who he is talking and quit server.

PS: first he contacted me in December to make a trade 1:1, today he contacted me to make a 15% trade...

eGod - January 10, 2020, 11:05 am

What is way funnier is how he attacked me on this one.

It has been solved. No worries. ^^

Pretty funny when you think about the fact he is a scammer himself, and he accuses me being on.

dhragon11 - January 10, 2020, 11:29 am

Might be the same guy, on separate accounts? Just sayin'...

PS: Anyone knows a reputable MM that I can use for future trades?

Shouldn't he get his account closed for scamming?

That's really weird. What is the use of the deal dispute then . I think a staff member should act upon this report

dhragon11 - January 12, 2020, 12:04 am

Can someone ban this member? He just asked me for an BTC/PP exchange:

He is obviously looking for the next victim.

Unignore and dm me so I can solve this.

dhragon11 - January 13, 2020, 12:04 am

Refund the BTC I send to you on bc1qx57fw83496anvgdvdn002rhtdupst5hcn226v6 and I will close the dispute.

I don't need your PP and we have nothing else to discuss. I'm unpleasantly surprise that you weren't banned yet.

Until then, no matter how many user names you'll change, I'll follow you and I'll warn all the users on every post you make on this forum.

LE: I saw you already changed your user name 6 times until now. You won't get away with it.

He change his user name 6 times in less than 2 month. It's hard to believe that this kind of person is tolerated here, but this is the reality.

I tried to talk to Cap Talk and first confirm that if he received the 300$ BTC on which he did agree and then also agreed that he will not be refunding back to the OP. He then thought that I am being too personal in this situation and started talking like a 12-year old. I'd say Cap Talk is at fault here as he does not have any proof. He's just saying all he has is a discord chat of a new account which OP made. It looks like Cap Talk made a new account on web discord and was talking to himself on app discord to make look OP a scammer which he ain't.

My +5 changed to -5 as my option is we should not have such users on Hack Forums.

I made the account to see if he would try and scam a new member as he believed I was, he was closed before I had to post the community alert, saves me the time of making a thread.

This was a necessary step to be taken. The OP didn't get his money back and for which I feel bad but I'm sure he will move on and do exchanges from trusted members hence forth.

dhragon11 - January 15, 2020, 11:53 am
