I honestly lost all my "friends" back when I dropped out from highschool irl. Lost touch with them all.

Yes, but they're basically all friends from work.

I have quite a few friends both from university and from work. I tend to hangout with them every weekend.

I do but not really. I don't hang out with anyone anymore. I just can't stand being around people.

Grizzly - January 12, 2020, 2:26 pm
