do you still use shampoo? or just use body wash everywhere

SIM-4398566 - January 13, 2020, 4:32 pm

Lol do a google search and you'll get your answer. But yes, they do.

Grim - January 13, 2020, 4:33 pm

what do you mean "do you still" as apposed to what?

Trip - January 13, 2020, 4:34 pm

If I got bald I'd rock it. There's nothing wrong with it, and own it. Don't be guy with hotshot half hair half no hair just cut it all off.

funtela - January 13, 2020, 4:44 pm

I'm bald. And no I don't use shampoo lol. My shower only has body wash, sponge, shaving cream, face wash, and a razor.

Aeowulf - January 13, 2020, 5:15 pm

Yes... for my beard. ?

Nate - January 13, 2020, 11:39 pm

I'd figure you'd use body wash or soap. Who knows Im never going bald

Some questions are just too basic. What's the point in making a thread? Doesn't matter though. Just my opinion.

I'm bald at choice.
What do u use it for? I'm bald and haven't used shampoo in years.

I am going bald.
I trim it down real close and then use bar soap for the whole body.

EXCEPT for the beard.
I NEVER wash the beard. Ever.

in fact I have to add oil to it. It dries out and gets SOOOOO itchy.

Wash your beard. I wash mine every day and it never gets itchy. I comb it too.

You gotta wash your beard bro. Use conditioner after you shampoo to restore some of the natural oil feel so you don't feel dried out.

jfthrow821 - January 15, 2020, 8:49 am

I used to wash my beard everyday. I had to trim it off due to the itch.
What kind of soap do you use for your beard?
