Thread: Deaf man sues adult sites for not having subtitles

Eagle 95 - January 18, 2020, 6:54 am

Quote:A deaf man has reportedly filed a lawsuit against a popular adult video website for alleged rights violations because he says it doesn't provide closed captioning on its videos.

Yaroslav Suris is suing Pornhub, which hosts millions of adult videos, claiming the site's lack of subtitles violates the rights of deaf and hearing impaired under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

The ADA prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities in areas of "employment, transportation, public accommodations, communications and access to state and local government programs and services," according to the U.S. Department of Labor.

If it's true, what a way to get rich lol.

They commented on it.

Quote:Pornhub vice president Corey Price -- who says the company usually doesn't comment on pending litigation -- responded to the allegations.

"We understand that Yaroslav Suris is suing Pornhub for claiming we've denied the deaf and hearing-impaired access to our videos," he told the outlet. "While we do not generally comment on active lawsuits, we'd like to take this opportunity to point out that we do have a closed captions category."

Hmm... Pornhub is into this woke marketing. I wouldn't be surprised if they had planned all this just so they can say "we do have a closed captions category".

It's good if you do. But getting sued because you don't adhere to some accessibility rules... that's something american I guess.

Can you imagine being hired for this gig? I'd be in tears from laughter all day long.

They should sue him back for not being able to hear as a big fuck you.

Miles Teller - January 22, 2020, 5:22 pm

Crazy! I hope he actually wins just cause that would be funny as fuck and then PH would have to put subtitles on their videos which would also be funny

Fountain Of Youth - January 23, 2020, 2:58 am

How much does he get if he wins the lawsuit?

Lindros - January 23, 2020, 8:23 pm
