I wish luck to any homeless person :)

Just got your message about this, and wanted to say hats off for considering it and doing it! At the very least, a phone will give them a way to contact potential employers/shelters, but if it has internet access, it gives them the chance to apply for jobs and the like, so you really could be changing their lives. Great stuff, and glad I could help to inspire!

What if the gangs in London recruit the homeless to go OT so they can stop using kids????

Jokes aside, posting for a (hopefully) good cause.

This would be very cool to see.

If OP could take photos of the phones/etc..., that'd be a very interesting project to watch unfold.

You got the phone yet?

Maybe you could just order some off of ebay? They don't have to be that exact phone I guess, new or used it doesn't really matter as long as it's in good condition

Stork - January 23, 2020, 6:12 pm

Give the person clothes they don't need a phone get them a warm carhartt hoodie

Misa - January 23, 2020, 6:15 pm

I agree. He's been called a scammer after looking at his threads.

V?rt - January 24, 2020, 7:03 am

I feel like the easiest way would to get them prepaid phones, so they can go into any store if they obtain money and just buy another card to have more data or whatever it may be. Honestly, I wouldn't worry about if they sell it for drugs or whatever, the phone is cheap enough so that it most likely wouldn't be worth it. Plus who cares, you do the right thing, it's their choice if they were to mess up the opportunity that they were given.
