How'd an old lady pull your door completely off?

Mr. Robot - January 22, 2020, 3:42 am

Shoulda asked her to take her teeth out and have a good time.

I leave my door unlocked when I'm inside my house also, although I don't want someone opening my door, so maybe I should stop.

Imagine living in an area/country that requires you to lock your doors when you're home.

You have "VB" listed on your usertitle. If you're Australian and lock your doors when you're home, you're fucked lmao common sense. you may live in good area but all it takes is one individual who doesnt like you or has some other reason.

you could live in best area in the world but individuals like that still can pop up deadsh0t - January 22, 2020, 4:20 am

My front door is always locked because noone comes thru the front door.

My backdoor is open most of the time unless i am watching a movie upstairs and i wont be able to hear anything dont you guys have those immigrant knife attacks ?

MeganCult - January 22, 2020, 7:32 am

Buy a sawed-off shotgun for next time!

Nah she's old so probably just lost a few marbles ?

LoremIpsum - January 22, 2020, 7:34 am

Why not lock your front door? Some elderly are confused and have a hard time finding their homes. Or just ignore the lady and escort her outside, instead of making a HF thread about it.

Issue > people opening your door > lock it. Problem solved I think ?

Secretgod - January 22, 2020, 7:36 am

Old lady? I thought this thread was about fc Juventus.

OP reminds me of the user @Duck@.

His 2 threads are all about "weird" people and situations, filled with anxious topics.

Either grannies at his door or teeth falling out. Sounds like a big fight at some dementia department.

Imaoo

Yeah all it takes is a chainsaw and I can get into just about anywhere lol xCodeh - January 22, 2020, 7:42 am

Some crackhead did this to me and got chased down.

V?rt - January 22, 2020, 7:57 am

I keep my doors locked at all time, plus I live in the middle of no where so you have to look for my house to find, nobody would just randomly come up.

Imagine someone actually do walk in the middle of nowhere, finding your house and feeling like checking inside.

I'd sh*t my pants if someone would stand next to me in the living room all of a sudden.

Yeah I'd freak out for sure lol. Worst part is, I have glass French doors in the back and every time I look out at night I expect someone to be standing there. All good, got a few guns scattered around the house.

Just make sure you keep all guns intact and ready to shoot your shot.

A few years ago a neighbour of mine was at home in bed and some random dude just walked into her house. He said he was looking for his elderly relative or something weird like that, don't know if he was burglar or crazy or what, but it freaked the shit out of her.
