Eagle 95 - January 23, 2020, 11:31 pm

I got some code from my colleague that will allegedly help solve my problem. It took a few hours to fix what he sent me to even make it kind of work but it still didn't fix my issue. I said, thanks, it helped me a bunch...

I told this one girl on [BRAND NAME REMOVED] that I've talked to for awhile and planned to meet up that I have super tiny dick...

Cooligan - January 24, 2020, 12:47 am

Backstory:

At a dive bar the other night, bartender is cute as sht, and there's always drunk sexual tension between us ever since we met.

#1: Me to bartender: "yeah can I get a sex on the beach, hold the sex, extra you and me after your shift?"

(somewhat joking around but she knows I'd be serious any day of the week)

two hours later of persistent flirting here and there

#2: "yeah I totally don't mind driving you back to your car in the morning, don't even sweat it"

about to leave the bar

#3: "I wouldn't want to be with anyone else right now either!"

a few minutes after we got back to my house

#4: "of course I was serious when I said that, haha you're adorable"
after filling her out like a job application

#5: "i'll definitely call you soon hun :)"
after dropping her off back at her car in the morning

I suppose my last lie kinda wrapped itself into 5 separate ones ?

Django - January 24, 2020, 11:08 am

That I'm okay when my parents ask me. I'm currently living with them again, and our relationship has gotten very strained in the last 5 years. They went from being amazing, caring, attentive and wonderful people to constantly working their frustrations out on me, even though I run the entire household by myself because my father works 14 hour days as a chef, and my mother is turning 62.

They feel like I don't do anything around the house, while I do all the grocery shopping by myself on foot (we don't have a car), I clean/hover/mop/dust every room and toilet, I cook my own meals, I do the dishes, walk my sister's dog, run errands like go get their medication/cigarettes/alcohol, etc. On an average day I'll wake up at 9 ish, do chores up until 9-10 PM, walk the dog 3-4 times in the evening (old dog, so she needs to be let out a lot), and when I finally get to call with my girlfriend I still get shouted at to go and do stuff.

It's REALLY starting to get to me. I'm patient, and I'll take a lot of shit from them because I respect them so much, but I feel that they're taking liberties and have gotten very ungrateful. They constantly complain at me, I get shouted at, threatened to get put on the street, I get called a junkie even after being fully clean after 2 years and never ever stealing from them or wronging them in any way, even though my dad uses cocaine on a regular basis, they work all their stress and frustrations out on me, etc.

It's heartbreaking, cus I love these people, but the way they've been treating me for a few years now is really getting to a boiling point. I'm hoping I can scrounge up enough money to get a place with my girlfriend in the UK, but we don't know how things are going to be with Brexit, so we'll have to wait and see for now. Praise the gods for that girl, though. She's the only one in my life that's keeping me sane.

Cars are carpeted through and through for the most part, so the stink clings into it a lot more. Hence why cops can still smell weed in the car weeks after not having smoked weed in your car.
