Thread: Play YORG.io

Xerotic - January 28, 2020, 8:51 pm

So I recently discovered a fun tower defense game called YORG.io. You start off collecting crystals which will be the base "energy" you will use to build your other towers. From there you build stone mining towers, cannons, walls, etc in order to protect your base from waves of zombies. The cool thing is that they have a multiplayer version... You play head to head against someone else. You build up your base and you can even create a "zombie spawner" tower to attack them.

Unfortunate part is that it seems this game isn't really that active. But if anyone wants to try out a multiplayer match, let me know! I'm still new but it's fun to play against a live person.

Here is the game link: <https://yorg3.io/>

It is also on Steam for like $3 (super small file size and no ads).

Post below or send me a convo and we can start a lobby and play.

math - January 28, 2020, 9:27 pm

Playing single player right now to see what it's like.

Nas - January 28, 2020, 9:35 pm

I don't know why but it kinda reminds me of Dungeon Keeper. You know what... I'm gonna go download Dungeon Keeper, haven't played that in a while!

Stork - January 28, 2020, 9:52 pm

Looks pretty cool! Music is kind of annoying.

Natas - January 28, 2020, 10:23 pm

Seems pretty cool, I am gonna try to get the hang on single player mode then ill hit you up for a game.

Exe - January 28, 2020, 10:52 pm

Made it to 28 days omfg lol its actually fun

lol - January 28, 2020, 10:57 pm

Wow it even works on Samsung browser

Gigabyte - January 28, 2020, 11:13 pm

yikes just played it for 15 mins now I'm late getting ready for school

Wafflemonger - January 28, 2020, 11:17 pm

Played it and made it to day 19 on my first try. Didn't really expect to do so well. I'll take a look on steam. I wish games like this had a co-op mode as oppose to a PvP. Co-op in these types of games strike me as incredibly fun, each having your own base, have to build up an economy and defenses together, etc.

V?rt - January 29, 2020, 3:07 am

Hmm, I'll check it out later today, but if this is still going on until Friday I'll play the multiplayer, don't have much time until then

TheChaosKiller - January 29, 2020, 3:16 am

Looks like it could be quite fun, I'll give it a go later when I've got some free time and hopefully others will be on too.

keztheguru - January 29, 2020, 3:22 am

Doesn't seem to be working properly via mobile.

Citoa - January 29, 2020, 4:07 am

Might try it out with a friend. Thanks for the suggestion!

normaldeve - January 29, 2020, 4:19 am tells me to install chrome just to play multiplayer. Jfl. other than that good game, but lacks RTS elements. its already RTS with defence mode only, which is boring.itneeds units and attacking and stuff

Herbert - January 29, 2020, 9:38 am

This is pretty cool, reminds me of age of empires a bit, I'll play some single player for a while until I get used to the mechanics.

is the multiplayer cooperative or versus?

Survived 17 nights on first attempt, no idea whether thats good or cringe.

Utility - January 29, 2020, 3:01 pm

There's actually a way more advanced and better looking version of this game and you probably heard of it.

Creeper World : <https://knucklecracker.com/creeperworld/playcwts.php>

Probably on my top 10 favorite games list.

Is it only multiplayer? And is single player any fun at all if it exists? I'm on my phone which is why I'm asking

DrDoof - January 31, 2020, 5:59 pm

Got to 60 and the next time I got completely fucked somewhere in the 40s. Went from killing all of them before they even reached my walls to being completely run down....and now I'm not playing that sh!t game ever again.

Mix - January 31, 2020, 6:18 pm

Had a go at this game and I honestly must say for it to work so well on a browser is really something and the game isn't half bad. got to level 27 on my first try and am happy to say I will play again.

V?rt - January 31, 2020, 7:07 pm

So far so good, it really reminds me of Bloons tower defense. That was fun game, I miss playing that a lot in school

Herbert - February 1, 2020, 1:29 pm

got rank #86 solo on my first run, going for #1 now

Luca - February 2, 2020, 4:08 am

Tried it out, not for me. It's just another tower defense game

passCODE - February 2, 2020, 4:14 am

Since you posted this I played it non stop, it's amazing! I kinda got bored now because it's a fast-paced game, is there anything like this but without the waves of zombies/enemies. Something where you have more time to develop the buildings, build around, gather resources...?

Natas - February 2, 2020, 11:54 am

Just a warning to every one Xerotic will rek you in this game he whooped my ass the first time he launched his zombies.

I lost still was fun playing tho been practicing for a rematch

Parkway - February 2, 2020, 4:59 pm

Posting to come back and try it later

funtela - February 2, 2020, 5:10 pm

Xerotic You got me hooked. Spent 5 hours on this game when I should've been working on a proposal.

Thanks.
