Sorry but why are you replacing them? Is there a technical reason?

I love the old smilies and they are classic to HF. ?

Yeah I agree with the SEO thing.

It's a compromise for sure but I loved the old ones.

To flavoral when he winks at someone it's the same as him telling that person he is confused.

He's a weird mammal

I don't think they need to add them to the list. There're too many to search in without a search option. You can always use any of them by looking them up online or mobile.
