Thread: What's your favourite website to visit?

SIM-2315787 - February 1, 2020, 8:11 am

I tend to spend much time on facebook but I'm not sure if this is my favourite website. There are some groups which I like but nothing more. I also enter youtube and watch videos from various channels. I love videos about UFOs and different mysteries and I also enjoy health , dieting and lifestyle videos. I used to be a big fan of twitter but I'm not quite sure if I like it any more.

This is the only website I go on, so i guess this

Cooligan - February 1, 2020, 8:16 am

Hack Forums. I spend the majority of my online time on this forum.

V?rt - February 1, 2020, 8:21 am

It's a close race between HackForums, twitch, and YouTube. That's my go to's. I'm starting to use other forums a good bit as well so they are coming up quick

Citoa - February 1, 2020, 9:03 am

Mostly hack forums and YouTube. Lately I have been spending a lot of time in the lounge and in the hack game.

Rsynced - February 1, 2020, 9:20 am

Google of course or duckduckgo, well, I guess I am on HF a lot, really don't have a favorite website.

Geralt - February 1, 2020, 10:03 am

Reddit since I never use it on my phone

Grey - February 1, 2020, 10:12 am

The order would probably be YouTube, Reddit, Twitter, and then probably Hack Forums.

A + - February 1, 2020, 10:19 am

Educational channels on Youtube. Seeker for future technology, AthleanX for fitness and nutrition, and Dr. Rhonda Patrick for Microbiome stuff.

Megane - February 1, 2020, 2:56 pm

I don't browse too many websites, so I'd say Twitch, MyAnimeList, and YouTube are my most viewed websites.

Lol for real. I just genuinely thoroughly enjoy my time spent on this site, always have and I'm pretty sure it's safe to say I always will.

I often think how long I'll be on this site and the answer never changes; I don't ever not want to be on this site. ?

For my case it is not always same, I can be all day in this forum, after that taking break for months, and then again back here for months :p

I'll take breaks too just not that often, and when I do it's not for that long.

I just always somehow find a way to properly incorporate HF into my irl life.
