Thread: PSA ytcraacker - Potentially MLT - MLT scam account.

NERO - February 2, 2020, 1:40 pm

When posting in the bug bounty section, I was messaged by YTcracker telling me his "Friend" Could help me.

He then sent me "MLT's" discord, Im unsure if it's the correct one and i wont be posting since it's against the rule, However if someone wants to validate PM me.

This "MLT" has taken a deposit on work and then ignored me since.

I think it's highly likely this YTcracker is either MLT or impersonating MLT.

Anyways, I thought id bring it to everyone's attention and hopefully stop people getting scammed :)

Have a nice day y'all!

Please re-read my thread. Pm me if interested part is quiet clear.

MLT was closed on HF. As i said, The amount was minimal, Hence why im doing a PSA (Public service announcement) To let people know so they don't fall for the same scam.

MLT is a scammer. Do not be fooled into thinking otherwise.

This is what MLT does. Talks himself up, riding on the successes of those around him, gets people to pay him money, then never delivers. Ever.

Hey Overload, i am interested in lerning about phishing (Yt, Instagram etc.). If you can write me private. Instagram: fcccracks_6 (of course not my real private Instagramm.)

PICwarrior381 - February 3, 2020, 1:52 pm

Be carefull that YTcracker guy scammed people before.

4um123 - February 3, 2020, 2:09 pm

are you sure its the real ytcraacker? He makes alot of money in im doubt he has time for this stuff. If you want pm me and I will give you his discord channel he runs.

Dotexe - February 3, 2020, 2:12 pm

They are impersonating MLT, he was closed month ago and his focus is in something completely else. Not to mention MLT's discord along with the server is just inactive.

FiePace - February 3, 2020, 2:14 pm

ytcraacker has been known to scam people before

Most likely, I love it when a member doesn't take their time to research. Only HQ members are on nowadays ??

Erm, your posts about YT make it look like you are spreading about actual YTC.

I've known the scene for a whole lot longer than you, trust me on that kiddo.

then why accuse me of scamming? lol?

FiePace - February 3, 2020, 3:55 pm

(Feb 3, 2020 04:54 PM)ytcraacker Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) then why accuse me of scamming? lol?
Because I know that you've scammed multiple people? And knowing who I am makes no difference as to whether you're a scammer or not

I said your potentially scamming because the evidence suggests so.

Quite right of him to say?

Krazie - February 4, 2020, 12:27 am

Ok there's one easy way to find out if he's legit or not. Taking this straight to ytc.

I didn't think so but meh. Anyway back to looking for influencer accounts lol cherrybox - February 4, 2020, 7:51 am

Same thing happened today, I was messaged by YTcracker telling me his "Friend" Could help me.

Added him on discord, he tried to convince me to make a down payment without proof that a certain hack could be done. Guy's argument was :-

I don't care about HF's opinion a sample isn't realistic this takes days to do.
I have a Masters Degree in Ethical Hacking, got several other certs..
I know what I'm doing pal.
