Thread: Selling Verified Onlyfans Account \(\$158 earned\) eWhore Ready

RealYG - February 3, 2020, 6:26 am

I have a legally fully verified onlyfans account!

Will get full access to the account, tested for withdrawals, everything is working as accordingly!

Already has 9 Fans and a total of $98 ready for withdrawal!

Bin: $200 btc/cash app

Current earnings on the acc:

$158

Can I contact you via discord

Had a couple of people contact me about this asking if it's one of my accounts. This isn't one I've made, never interacted with OP, so I would highly recommend potential buyers to ask a LOT of questions as to origin and actual source of legality, as ewhoring with a jacked account or account made with someone else's info will almost definitely lead to charges and arrest.

Also, just a thought, if it's already been tested for withdrawals, and already has a balance, then this account is not legal due to the fact it's already been registered to someone else, had earnings come in from content used, and is now being sold on regardless of the fact there is money on there to cash out.

Willing to provide content from the girl used to make the account, I create agreements with friends who verify these accounts for me. I will provide content to post, of the girl that verified the onlyfans account. Nothing illegal about this what so ever. I can provide proof I know the girl real life and everything I'm saying to potential buyers. Thanks for your concern, I'd never put someone in a situation where they'd have to face legal issues.

Forgot to add, she's been providing me content to post and for sake of legitimacy I shouted the account via my Snapchat network. Hence the 11 fans and current balance. But I assure you everything is legit with the account/verification process.

That's not legal, my friend. You can't operate an account on there with someone else's content unless it's been set up in a very specific way with legal documents and agreements from an outside institution that OnlyFans works with. As soon as someone posts on there, even a test post, and they aren't the person who registered/supplied verification documents, it becomes fraud and identity theft. Former employee here and long time seller of verified accounts, so I know all the ins and outs of the legality issues. It sounds like you've got a good hustle going, but I assure you that this will only hurt people down the line if not done in that specific way.

Correct me if I'm wrong, glad your busting my balls id hate anyone to have a negative experience but... if the content that gets posted stays of the girl who created the account. Will there ever be an issue?

No problem! I always try to make sure that people are aware of the dangers because I can tell you're doing this from a good place, as opposed to some sellers who are using phished IDs etc, but if you don't fully understand the ins and outs of the business and the policies then you're heading towards a world of hurt. It would need to remain being her content, yes, but legally it should only ever be her posting. There is a way around it, which is by using the loophole and institution that I do, but that would involve having to delete the account and starting again using the method so as to avoid this issue at all.

You ever considered bringing someone on to help you in your endeavors? I have a lot to bring to the table and could benefit you in the end I believe.

I have! Most have flaked out after realising the work that goes into it, and the cost at times, but by all means let's talk some more. I'll DM you.

Payments added to the acc balance usually pend for a time period to make sure payments clear, and theirs no issues with fraud etc.

Still for sell, buyer just tried to scam me!

I'm 90% sure he's just doing this because I wouldn't buy into his Olympians group after him begging loads of users to join lol. Since he negged me a bunch of others have messaged me on convos here about him doing the same, it's a bit sad tbh. OP and I are talking about potentially working together anyway, just ignore that sadcase lol.
