This looks very similar to VIPLeaksPool. Are you stealing their stuff or are you actually taking it directly from every one of those channels? Do you really have Crypto Kirby? Would you mind provide me with the latest post of Foreflies and Crypto Kirby for verification?

How to steal something what's already leaked/stealed? But to answer your question, we have 3 sources where we get those channels from, we don't know where the signals from these sources are originally coming from.

Check PM for verification!

Banker - February 11, 2020, 5:40 am

Hi,

So OP actually showed me the latest signal from Crypto Kirby and it checks out as I receive the same one from a different source. The reason I chose Kirby for verification is because hes hella expensive. Since this checks out im confident that the rest do as well.
