Group Description:

Hypebeast is a group of members who discuss purchasing limited released items and social media growth. We wish to use Hack Forums and our group as a catalyst to encourage discussion in all forms of creativity. We want our members to have a place where they can feel like they can share their projects, discuss other projects, discuss anything related to social media, cook groups, sneaker bots, etc and relax around members who have the same interests as them. We also wish to use our group to provide members on Hack Forums with guides and other various services that they can read and take part in without actually being within the group.

Recruitment Information:

This specific recruitment is very limited (5-10 members will be accepted) and only for our social media sector. This recruitment is likely for you if you are experienced in growing pages, monetizing pages, verifying accounts, or if you'd like to learn about this kind of thing. If you are more interested in the buying and selling of limited items please view our mentorship service, by purchasing our mentorship you will also gain access to the social media sector.

This is limited recruitment and is probably going to be selective. Make sure to take your time with your applications.

Also I think this is probably the only group that has a colored username which is offering recruitment like this without a fee.

Preferred Platform:

Snapchat & Instagram

What is your highest engaged account:

- Snapchat account with over roughly 500 friends
- Snapchat account with over roughly 250 friends (sold)
- Instagram account with around 800 followers (sold)

Why do you want to join Hyperbeast:

I would really like to become a Hypebeast member as I believe the group has a lot of different things to offer. I am wanting to learn some new skills on how to grow social media accounts not only to sell further down the track but to assist with growing other accounts too. I am always very interested in learning new skills that will not only benefit myself, but others in the group and others that may need help.

How can you contribute to Hypebeast:

I can contribute to Hyperbeast in a few different ways. My skills in social media growing can benefit members that are just being introduced to the topic. I am a very active user and I enjoy helping others and always am willing to help the group in any way.

I plan to put back some of the money into the group that I was to make from skills that I have learnt from the group. I am a very quick learner and enjoy learning new things that I may not be too familiar with. I also like I said enjoy helping and teaching others whenever I can so would always be willing to help out fellow members with different topics.

A side from all of this, I am a friendly user that always enjoys making new friends and meeting new people. I believe I am easy to get along with and I am always down for a laugh. I enjoy all sorts of different things such as video games, gambling, music and TV shows etc.

Thank you so much for reading my application.
