Those days are over. Almost all groups are now buy-in groups.

No point in being in a group where no one has anything in common but a userbar. Users are not selected based on what they can contribute to the group, but instead whether they want to pay 60 dollars for some bar on their profile.

Never will I buy into some group on HF.

Agreed and people wonder why groups aren't the same tight knit communities they use to be people aren't choose by being a good fit for the group, people don't feel they need to be active in sub forums since they paid in for life. Groups used to make you have so many post a week in the sub or you'd get bounced.

Also Doubtful many real drug addicts would spend 60 to join a group when they could spend 60$ and get high on whatever their drug of choice is.

Meh well hopefully you all understand I paid a lot to get a colour change + upgrades so I'm down a lot of money there's no other way from making my money back I'm down other than selling spots, I could be ridiculous and sell it for 100-200 and sell spots in 3 days and make about 1k but I haven't, that's why the price is low at 60$!

Don't post on a public forum if you don't want others to chime in bud. I could care less what you do with your group I imagine after you make most your money back you'll sell it to make more money while fucking everyone over who bought in.

Well because previous owners rebranded instantly after selling spots doesn't mean I will, not everyone is the same. Don't assume every group is like that just from previous experiences.

I was gonna say, I thought I'd seen some over the past few months that weren't buy in, and I'm in Boss which Xerotic put together without a buy in being necessary. I think it's more that the buy in threads are happening more and more, and are getting congested in their threads, so that's all most are seeing.

FYI group buy-ins back then were worst, take Illuminati for an example. $150 buy-in all it came with was a userbar. At least groups now you can pimp your profile and show what you love(vice) in one shot.

That username color is fire. Reminds me of the old staff color but a few shades lighter.

Honestly, I would buy into this group. But I no longer buy into groups anymore due to the fact that I have been running wolfpack and I don't see a need to.

In summary, I think that the rebranding of BrickSquad to this was an amazing idea and I really hope this group makes it somewhere in the future.

Damn, this is a pretty sick looking group. Can't wait to see what it has to offer to HF. Wish it was an open recruitment

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,

Thanks for the feedback I might start hiring myself out to do voice-overs for people with scripts. ??

Roberto Scorpius Malfoy - February 16, 2020, 4:55 pm

Pretty cool userbar, but 60 USD is too expensive, would consider joining if it would be a little bit cheaper.

Dorrance - February 16, 2020, 5:00 pm

Do you have to smoke or be a stoner to fit the requirements of joining.
