Here's what I'm looking for:Graphic Designer - The job for this one will actually design the T-Shirt

A Supplier - I think this would be optional, why? If someone can provide us budget then I can physically purchase the tools and shirt for printing or unless we can do shipping.

Actual Investor - He will provide the cost for this business

Advertisement:Through band gigs, I have a lot of friends in the industry (bands) who can advertise the product easily

Social Media, this is the basic advertising for this business.

Stores, I can purchase store spot here (cheap, sometimes free)

Theme, I have a lot on my mind and here they are:Kush Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I can see this in a spencers store or journeys, MAYBE a pacsun or urban outfitters, however. Suppliers are easy, Alibaba offers more than enough variety for the clothing, the hard part would be getting your embroidery on the clothing without spending a brick. So you need machines. I like this idea

Yeah, I already talked to my friends who owns clothing line too and actually they do what do you called that "Heat Press" or something. For this kind of audience we already have a huge potential clients and buyers
