Whats with this tag on my profile? [user@HF:] What does it mean and what are all the different tags?

Burnzy - February 11, 2020, 1:28 am

I dont think there is a list with all the tags but they change based on your post count, you can have custom text once you upgrade

It means you're a user. @ HF.

It's just something that's there. You can change what it says however you need to be an upgraded user for that.

They change the more active and more posts you get from what I read
If you upgrade you can change
