This is a screenshot from one of my newest dropshipping stores that I started in November 2019
More proof: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6049010&pid=59423238#pid59423238>

Not here to promote anything, I have zero interest in selling anything on HF.

A bit about me:

I am a 22 yr old expert online digital marketer who specializes in online eCommerce. I've been doing this full-time for a little over 2 years now.

I've never had a mentor, and am completely self-taught. I mainly use Facebook/IG and Google Ads to bring traffic to my stores.

I currently own 7 dropshipping stores and 3 private-labeled USA based stores.

Ask me anything related to ads, dropshipping, Shopify, running an online business, life, literally anything. I'll try my best to get back to everyone asap.

Why are you asking this if you're selling mentorship in the marketplace?

what kind of question is "how much data do you need for LLA's" to see if someone's legit? Imao what?

and I don't know what you mean by I've been being bold since I've gotten Ub3r, I'd always point this out whether upgraded or not. you're sussssss Because 1) opinions differ, it's always good to hear other peoples insights.

Yeah, It looks like you need some help with that $1.6k/mo in rev you're doing ??

To somewhat answer your "question": I have set benchmarks for each lookalike audience I create.

For example: I'll create my 75 or 95% VV audiences at 2000+ video views if I'm advertising a video creative. I'll create a VC LAA at 1k+ website visitors, ATC at 300 atcs, IC at 400+ ic, PUR at 200+ purchases, etc.

This varies depending on the country the custom audience is in (I have this one store that is killing it in a completely random Nordic country, but it's not doing as well in USA, CANADA, or UK. Of course, the more data the better.

Are AMAs allowed? Regardless GL with your eCommerce.

Hopefully it doesn't have to do with a Chinese service lol customs are beyond fucked

None of my stores were actually affected. I don't use the same cheap ePacket shipping that most drop shippers use. ePacket delivery time takes over a month and it's impossible to run an actual business if your customers have to wait that long.

I'm glad this conversation became more civil, i'm gonna tear OP later he's 1000% a multi who's gonna feed on the bunch of "help" PMs he's about to get because of this thread. These threads have been popping up way too much.

Anyways, dealing with students & clients on a daily basis, a good bunch of them them struggle scaling with LLAs, and i'm always asked the same question "Should i do LLAs now". My question wasn't exactly asked for me, i was asking it from a 1000% beginners perspective because im sure a lot of people who've gotten to that stage have the same question.

1) I'm not envious of your 10% profit margins, I'm hitting $1k-3k daily with my shit with ease, proudly & great margins, not to mention you live off of your 15% profits and this shit is just a side hussle for me. Not to mention 10+ mentorship clients with a few breaking 20k+/mo.

With that being said, pull up your ad costs give us a real detailed view of what you're doing.

Yikes, someone's mad.

Even if my profit margin was 10% (nice self-projection buddy), I'm still making A LOT more money than you are.

Yeah bro im real mad ? You're the one making $200k/mo yet you're multi-ing on a hacking forum. You're either trying to stroke your ego by coming on here and acting big or obviously your objective is to SCAM. Anyways, good luck on your little AMA thread buddy ?

I mean, he could just be here trying to provide value. His proof looked pretty legit. It'd be hard to fake that.

I would personally like to see your FB Ads manager refreshing with stats showing, though. You can see an example of that here: (light flex)

Invest as much as I can. My ultimate goal is to buy/sell commercial RE.

I'm also growing the brands that I currently own.

Perfect, perfect segwit into my next question.

What does a millionaire eCommerce genius think is a good investment, and why :)

I'm honestly not the person to ask for investment advice haha.

My two biggest investments in value are in index funds and rental properties here in NYC.

why are you coming at him?

I'm not saying you're wrong nor correct, but as of now, all he's done is answer a few questions and show refreshing proof of stats. I see nothing wrong here.

He's coming at me because I exposed him and he's full of poop.

And he knows that he's full of poop.

I mean, just go to his sales thread. His BEST DAY dropshipping was $1.8k in revenue.

My stores pull in more than $200k/mo profit, but that's beside the point.

My objective is to scam, but I'm not selling anything? Trying to stroke my ego, but I'm anonymous on this forum?

Serious question, are you retarded?

Honestly you're right, I shouldn't even be wasting my time but > triggered by the smallest/easiest question

If he's genuinely helping, and he's qualified to help then great good for him, but I know the intentions of these types of threads.

I'd advise everyone to stay away and exercise extreme caution when dealing with him.

PS boofy thinks he exposed me, my threads/reputation within my program speaks for itself lol.

Have a good night, both of you.
