Thread: Anyone play Habbo Hotel anymore?

guccithehero - February 13, 2020, 1:15 am

I am just curious of this topic, would like to hear some thoughts on the game. I used to play it years ago, it was great! casino's gambling and lots of fun back in the day! Any updates? I'd love to hear some feedback!!

I thought it was taken down and remade from some random company or something. Could be wrong though.

It's literally nothing like it used to be. no casinos, no fun nothing.

I checked it out the other night, and I just can't play it anymore lol. Literally nothing to do.

oh my god lol this game brings back childhood memories. is this still really around?

Goku - February 19, 2020, 2:54 pm

I was a 9 year old kid when I saw it for the first time. After 12 years they probably should have closed the service, it's deader than dead lmao tina300 - February 19, 2020, 6:31 pm

I think they took it down i remember the fun times i had on habbo damn so many young scammers back in the day that organized races and the winner got nothing they just kicked everybody from the room lol fun times

Man I used to play habbo all the time. I owned a casino, I owned a military. Best memories was high betting in the casino and staying up all night drinking root beer winning gold bars and thrones left and right. I love being a casino dealer on habbo, it was awesome.

Miles Teller - February 19, 2020, 6:56 pm

You can still have casinos on habbo but you're only allowed 3 dice. Also habbo was the shit. I guess people still make good money selling GBs but I don't know how cause the game is dead.

stupidforums - February 20, 2020, 12:32 am

Wow, you only get three dice now? That's crazy. It must take forever to get stuff now lol

I remember owning an airport in this game that lead to several countries with each having its own unique theme according to its own landscape and culture. Beautiful times.

A lot of pedophiles probably do.

I remember playing that game as a kid though. My whole class played and me and one of my mates had a casino with sofas, dragons, and dices.

Old times haha, remember when I was kid and my first HC month, bring back memories. One of my friend was so rich, but also spend so much money calling to get credits, his father caught him and he was not allowed to use the computer for 2 months lmao

NoError - February 22, 2020, 6:03 am

Heard the new one sucked. No fun

I use to play this game but quickly grew out of it by discovering other much better games. Lots of memories for sure, it was so hyped at the time.

de_g3ntl3m4n - February 22, 2020, 10:39 am

Used to play it not anymore feel like its just boring now, feel like the only people who play it are the ones that are making money of it or just little kids learning how to use the web
