Thread: Has anyones egg hatched/what do you think will come out of the EGG?

Threat - February 14, 2020, 3:46 pm

I don't have myself, has anyones hatched and what came out of the egg?

I have a few predictions myself, a mini omni or something, a bird you have to grow with bytes or something.

No I was not, what does it mean tho, theyre just 2 creatures ?

EDIT; pretty certain that the different color eggs will give different breeds, and the more rare the egg stronger the creature etc.

Well we know that these creatures most likely will get out of the egg's

The question is what we're gonna do with them and so on ?

Hackuman is a 4 year old project. Admins have been working on it long back and is back now since Omni Xero live almost together now.

We're gonna get mini creatures and fight each other I guess. The more you win and feed it, the more it will grow and evolve.

How do you even acquire these eggs?

You can purchase awards off of people I believe.

You can still get it, but I doubt someone would donate it unless you're selling a service accepting awards.

Citoo - February 15, 2020, 2:24 am

Oooh I hope you win bytes when you win a battle. Also it would be cool if they add more creatures. Just 2 doesn't seem like enough. But who knows. I haven't seen the entire thing yet so it might be enough.
