Thread: For Marketing Agency Owners - How to Get 10 Sales Appointments a Day with Biz Owners

NSA - February 16, 2020, 10:56 pm

Hey guys, this is only for people building an SMMA or any type of marketing agency that offers SEO, PPC, FB ads, etc.

I've recently worked out a way to get just about as many appointments as you want with business owners that want to talk to you.

I've literally gotten 15 appointments in a single day doing this, and I could do that every day if I had sales guys to take all the appointments.

The process goes cold e-mail -> phone call to those that replied to e-mail -> sales call.

I've closed a few clients this week doing exactly this.

I hold your hand with everything and get you set up completely. At the end, you'll be generating as many sales appointments as you want.

PRICE: $250

Any vouch copies or can you give more info on what you're selling? The email & phone script?

Also interested in this since I've got a small agency doing something similar to this, if not then no worries and goodluck with sales.

Yes, I show you how to send bulk e-mail easily and without getting banned from anywhere, where to source e-mails for cheap, how to clean your emails lists for cheap, as well as the exact e-mail and phone scripts I use to book sales appointments.

So this is a walkthrough on setting up the process to be able to send enough to get 10 sales calls or initial calls from emails?

The from email call to book a sales call, is that outsourced?

No one ever bought.

I'm working on putting it into a video course I'll be selling for $2k.

Should be done in the next 2 weeks.

I forgot I made this post but It's still $250 if anyone wants the coaching.

Yep.

You can outsource it if you want. I do. I've also done it myself.

Do you outsource your marketing efforts as well? Seems like a pretty automated solution.

NSA - December 26, 2020, 3:49 pm

SEO - yes

FB and YT ads - no
