OP gave me a vouch copy, and this is what I can say so far. This is definitely a unique method that I haven't seen before and I can see this making a ton of money.

This is a very informative book although if you aren't familiar with Fiverr you may have trouble setting it up. (I'm only saying this because it doesn't tell you explicitly how to set up a store, but you can easily figure out how to do that). This book is short and sweet and isn't excruciatingly long which I like. I definitely believe that this is a profitable method and it's definitely worth the investment. I vouch for this product entirely. Hopefully I will be able to put this method into use in the next few days/weeks. I will edit this review once I get the time to do so.

TL:DR; Great book, definitely recommend it

Sure, if you send me a contract for a vouch copy in exchange for a review, you will be the sole recipient of one.

Hi there, does the method show how to set up the gig correctly? Cheers

AdMaster - February 18, 2020, 9:08 am

This seems pretty unique. posting to come back once some reviews are posted.

Thank you for the review, JUUL! Really appreciate it. I take the feedback on board, and if customers are new to Fiverr, please reach out and I'll help you set up if things become too complicated, however the site is relatively easy to use so you shouldn't have an issue. Let me know how you get on with it, it's becoming more and more profitable as time goes on it seems :)

Hi, yes it does, and I can offer some assistance to help set up too :)

sumospim - February 19, 2020, 2:56 am

I have started contract and requested payment by PayPal ($15). Cheers Simon

Thank you Asmodais! I personally just made a relatively large sale using this method, so it's very viable for people to use.

Is it easy to get saturated? How long will I be able to do this and make money with no competition?

There's always some potential for saturation, but due to the way the site works, the way this particular gig appeals to people, and customer behaviour, this method won't ever get saturated mostly down to the nature of the customers. It's a unique niche that will always have customers looking for more, so saturation won't be an issue.

Sent payment and email confirmation. Awaiting the copy :)

Awesome. I have an established account but it says I'm not responsive and what not. lol Should I do this with a new account, or does it not matter?

It's not a huge deal to be honest, but I would recommend a new account if your current one doesn't have great stats. It isn't a massive deciding factor really, but a newer one with fresh stats would likely be more appealing to customers.

It's an interesting method but it's a full on gamble if you actually succeed.

These are my stats after a few days of waiting -> <https://prnt.sc/rda4r9>

I'm sorry you feel that way! Have you tried utilising the buyer request section?

That's where buyers will literally request things, so they'll post what they need and ask if people can offer the service. In that section you can earn a lot as they're more desperate for a solution and will pay better.

Anyone can be proud of using this method? Is this another shot that you might succeed?

Is the product we sell really so popular?
