Hey man just wanted to say so you don't get your hopes up too much there's almost nothing that can be fully automated. Accounts will get banned, if you're selling nudes you'll need at least some interaction with the buyer etc ...

You are wrong 110% because i'm earning good money many years with fully automated methods. So please if you dont know what you are talking better keep your opinion for yourself ;) thanks man.

Hey man good for you. Since you've found that, all you gotta do now is rinse and repeat. There is no work involved in maintaining these methods so that means you can just scale infinitely! Doing some math real quick, let's say you got a method that makes you \$10 a month automated from a day's work (and that seems pretty low compared to some of the methods you can find here), you work 300 days a year taking a nice 60 days of vacation, and you've been at this for 10 years. So by now you should be making about $10 \times 300 \times 10$ that's \$30,000 a month automated. That's a nice living man, I got no clue what you're doing on here trying to get into ewhoring.

You are again wrong, seems you never had anything big running stable. Because there is no such things as "scale infinitely" all traffic sources and all methods have limits because there is nothing infinite in this world. Even your time and your life is limited so its not smart to think that if you find some source to make 100/day there you can scale it to 1000 just repeating the same thing. One day you will understand it ;)

Aaaaahhhh now I understand. So maybe things are limited ... even things like ... automation ?
