Hello everyone!

What is your biggest goal in life. Or in simple words, What are you working for in life.

Starting with me:

I have everything in life like a premium car, a nice flat, a loving family and of course a good bank balance. But still I do not find myself complete. I want to contribute something to the nature for which I am trying as well. If I see our earth pollution free, I will be more than happy.

Now your turn guys!

My ultimate goal in life isn't luxury, an expensive car, a large house or some accomplishment that immortalizes my name. Instead, I just want to love and be loved, to remember to have fun and to laugh at least once a day, living until I'm ready to bid farewell to the world and a pleasant goodbye holding my loved one's hand. You know, thug life.

Looking for an IT security career, maybe looking for a working holiday visa in USA or Canada. I guess it's pretty interesting to work in IT there, don't know if I would like to stay, I'm pretty fine in France, but just want to see more things

Just wanna be rich as fuck so I can travel whenever I want wherever I want and fuck random chicks. Would probably get bored of that in 15 years, then I would want a good wife, kids and whatever.
