I don't think this works that way, but who knows. You got all the eggs you can place somewhere.
Are you happy with the colors, or wanna change one?

Silkroad - February 20, 2020, 8:31 am

Good job OP. The blue ones are dope.

Is there even a how-to for how to get eggs? I've been posting now and again in hopes of obtaining an egg but I'm not so sure that the 100 character thing applies, because I've posted in a few forums and haven't had any luck.

I got one egg and it was with out 100 characters I feel your pain I was having trouble to and actually kinda gave up then I was messing around complaining and got 1 lol

Mate keep posting on new threads but please remember 100+ character count i'm pretty certain this plays a huge part in winning these eggs .. All my posts have been well over 100 and i won 2 eggs on both my new threads .. Fingers crossed for you bro ?

Just make some random shite up mate . People are saying it doesn't make a difference of character count and a few have won with a lower character count but just to be safe mate try and keep it over 100 characters because say we do find out later on that it makes a difference you would be gutted you didn't make more of an effort bro ?

my current strategy is to basically type as if i'm actually speaking or talking. Like you know, it's bit different when you write that when you talk to someone in voicechat

Atta boy, being considerate of unlucky cucks such as myself. I still honestly think that the drop rate of eggs is directly affected by the balance of Bytes the user has. I have a low balance, been posting helllla and still haven't received an egg.. gonna buy 2k bytes today from my homie deadmau5 and see if there's a significant change in drop rate

How many posts are so up to so far ? When i won my first green egg i was over 120 posts and i was cracking just thinking this is never going to happen but yeah just as i wasn't expecting it i hit post post reply and there is was .. But as i said i have made 1000 posts and won 6 ..

I found using 100+ character count worked good for me some will say it makes no difference

Best of luck mate my fingers are crossed for you ?
