Thread: Never. Fly. With. Ryanair.

SIM-3205632 - February 20, 2020, 10:42 am

I just waited a month to see my girlfriend again just for the weekend and shes supposed to fly out here tomorrow. But they cancelled her flight because it's overbooked. Now i have to wait another month to see her. Fuck ryanair theyre full of shit. Never use their services don't let their cheap prices distract u.

MavenGradle - February 20, 2020, 10:43 am

Are you sure it's not just her making up excuses to not see you?

Yeah shes defo making up excuses. Nah its their piece of shit service.

Ultras - February 20, 2020, 10:48 am

Many airlines do this but luckily I've never had my ticket cancelled. Ryanair is a different level of shit anyways and you can fly across Europe for 50 euros with much better airlines

Mohinder - February 20, 2020, 10:50 am

Ryan Air has ruined my holidays once. Had a delay of more than 48 hours. Insane.

funtela - February 20, 2020, 10:54 am

Did they cancel her flight or did they not let her board the plane?

Luca - February 20, 2020, 11:01 am

Airplane flight cancellations are the absolute worst

They told her this:

"basically shes saying bc ppl from londons airports are being rerouted to the manchester one to get to their destination so theyre behind schedule for a lot of their flights and the best they can do rn is give me flight credit as reimbursement"

Also for the people saying "she might just be sayin that just to not see you" I'm not dating a ewhore idiots. This is a real female.

RYANAIR looks like a UK/EU airline. USA has some budgets that suck too. I refuse to fly Spirit Airlines after having about 3 major problems with flights. Never again. They don't even care about making it right with a free flight voucher or a steep discount. You're lucky to get a free beverage for a 12 hour delay.

It's insane... Her return flight isn't being refunded and the only refund she gets from this flight is a "credit" refund meaning she can only use it to spend it on another flight with THEIR company. This feels illegal but it isn't apparently It's just very scummy.

Have you met her IRL yet, and have you sent her money via amazon giftcards?

It's no different in USA. Almost no buyer protection in the law from airline abuse.

I think they have to give you $250 max for lost luggage otherwise they expect you to buy flight insurance separately. What a fucking joke. You can also take them to court, even small claims, which you'll likely win. But the airlines are betting that most people won't, and don't, bother with that.

They can ruin your vacation. You could lose out on work, hotel and car rentals reservations and they won't give you a dime. Not to mention if it's a special event like a wedding or a funeral which missing means you can never experience it again. AND what if it's your whole family? You wife might miss work for nothing. It's just infuriating imho.

Bear - February 20, 2020, 12:09 pm

Why would anyone buy Ryanair tickets when there are so many other options that won't screw you like that.

Be glad she wasn't in transit, trust me, Ryanair literally cancels connecting flights mid transit.

It was 100$ cheaper and we're tight on money at the moment.

Buy agc on here at 70% and then use that to buy gift cards to fly. You can save the 30% approx plus fly a little better.

Ryanair is just nightmare bro.

There's laws in some places that make airlines pay up the arse when this type of thing happens. Sorry to hear you have to wait another month to get laid.

Sadly that isn't an option for us I've looked at the price for her to come over in 2 weeks and it's 300€ while the price on ryanair in 2 weeks is 30€

The first mistake in this post is having a long distance relationship theres so many girls close to you why play yourself like that

Because you don't pick who you fall inlove with. And its long distance for the moment while she's studying.

Sorry about that man, that actually really sucks. That being said though, even if you get on their plane it's so damn tightly packed you'll still have a shit time.

I always use a thumb rule that if the flight is over 3 hours, you should invest some more money in decent tickets for a decent flight. Your day won't be ruined as easily by something like this.

The prices are incredible though it's a one hour flight. Costs 20€... While a good airline is 300€

Hmm well yea in that case I would still go with the cheap one, even though it can be frustrating. 20 euro is definitely dirt cheap, and one hour of feeling trapped isn't that bad either :p

Some people just don't like the girls in their country.

Or just anti-social/low self-esteem.

I defo don't have a low self-esteem and I'm usually very against e-dating since it almost never works out. But I met this girl & over the summer I really fell in love with her we see each other every 2 weeks until she gets her exams done then she's coming to live with me for a few months. She's very shy and is far from what you usually see from the girls these days. She's smart and sweet and she wouldn't hurt a fly.

Controlled - February 22, 2020, 3:23 pm

I hate flying to begin with. But I will keep this in mind regardless!
