Thread: Spartan Crypter Gold - WORST crypter EVER!

marazzini - February 23, 2020, 5:04 am

Well guys, I tried to comment 2 times on Spartan thread on hackforums, but they deleted my comment.

This is my experience with Spartan Crypter Gold (there's nothing gold on it...).

1 month subscription, using it with Warzone Rat (legit and paid version obviously).

- Scantime detection ratio is about 20/70 in less than 12 hours
- binding it TOTALLY useless because it takes more than 5 minutes in order to launch the binded exe file
- runtime didn't bypassed (in my own experience) Avast, WD and malwarebytes (premium).

That's all.

Eladictocosity - February 23, 2020, 5:11 am xx/70?. Where are you scanning it?

KoYoGotit - February 23, 2020, 7:23 am

All crypters are basically legit scamming method on hf

Your post was not deleted by the seller you violated policy. Repeating this seems like a terrible idea.

I think that the only terrible thing here is Spartan Crypter.

I must inform other users that your software is pure scam.

Ynes - February 24, 2020, 1:34 am

I use Spartan crypter before and bypass avast premier scantime and runtime but only when Vitani push new stub, but after 2 hours avast detect it. I think is so detected because scanners where Vitani scan the stub distribute or have to much customers and scan to distribute scanners.

CryptoChecker - February 24, 2020, 6:12 am

This crypto full garbage even has a refud, it sees it WD

Yes, unfortunately it`s absolutely true. I bought this cryptor in autumn and really this cryptor was THE WORST I ever seen in my life: work incorrectly VERY often + it wasn`t FUD no one time I used it (TRIED to use, not use!). And NO SUPPORT - they answer to my questions about 2-3 weeks on EACH)))

Really, worse I didn`t seen anytime!

2 years ago I wrote this crypter was scam. I get censored.

Also someone remember the « GOLD UPDATE » it's was a pure scam.

That was my thought process exactly, Just his initial post saying 20/70 would lead me to ban him if it was my service.

Hes part of why its not 0/70 but also most services are more focused on the important AVs to my knowledge so you'll always have VT detection's.

FOR ANYONE WHO IS NOT INFORMED USING VT IS BREAKING TERMS FOR %99 OF HF's CRYPTERS

Theres no such thing as private source, it is called virustotal and it is public.. it is fishy that you want to hide it, if it is real then say it, i dont see any issue not telling anyone where you scan that 0/70. kleenscan, cyberscan and antiscan posted their scanner publicly..

marazzini - March 28, 2020, 12:21 pm

It's not virustotal where I scanned. I know that you have to do the possible in order to sell your clay davis crypter, but please do not throw mud to people who bought the crypter.

I obviously know that I don't have to use public antiscan that shares infos about detections.

That's all. Make a real fud realtime/scantime crypter, and sell it after done for good your work.

You're one to talk about throwing mud, You made a thread to trash someones product.

1. Did you ask the seller for support?
2. Did you try obfuscating the crypted file?

If you have such a big problem with whats being sold pick up some clues and learn how to code, there's a search button that can help you learn as well.

Hi mate, unfortunately every crypter here (even private stub) isn't really able to bypass Avast (behaviour shield, it could work for 1 hour or 2 but nothing more), Avira and WD.

Lot of crypters here are ST fud, but on runtime they will get detected by some major AVs.

Don't trust on dyncheck scans (they usually crypt Putty or some clean sw and scan it with internet blocks). The only way to see if a payload is really fud is to manually check with major avs.

SIM-4509092 - April 27, 2020, 2:06 am

So no way to make my payload FUD?

The only way is (if you have skills on development) to make a crypter by yourself...

SIM-3149568 - May 11, 2020, 9:02 am

If you want to get good result on private crypter, you have to use a private one which is coded by yourself or paid. Shared stubs can detected by cloudtime on very short time

Spartan Gold is pure garbage just learn how to do it yourself...you'll be better off in the long run.
