No idea who you are Geralt but congratulation on the award. I am trying to crack how to get this award but well... It seems to be a population induced. Not content produced.

gigajew - March 1, 2020, 9:17 pm

Congrats bro, and thanks for doing things like this hf staff

Anyway, congratulations man.

For which you should be happy. If it was content produced you'd be the last one to get it.

Selling public e-whoring packs unfortunately is not a good way of becoming member of the month sorry.

Zoomers - March 2, 2020, 12:28 am

Congratulations, I don't know who you are, but its cool to see how humble you are :_) eXceptional - March 2, 2020, 12:39 am

I don't think it's only related to rep

rep is a big factor, posting may help too as I think I saw him being pretty active since hackuman

Goku - March 3, 2020, 2:25 am

Don't think I'll ever get the MOTM lol but congrats Geratl who ever you are <3

Huhm I thought it had more to do with how many characters you post and in which section. But I can understand why rep is a factor.
