Thread: hackumon disappearing!

bernie17 - March 4, 2020, 10:32 am

Over the past couple of weeks, I collected 3 eggs and incubated them all and had 2 lunge and one d-daus. When I logged in today the first lunge I got disappeared for my hackumon collect with no warning so I don't why it happened. did this happen to anyone else or did I just experience a game glitch?

They probably died because you didn't feed them.

AYMG - March 4, 2020, 10:45 am

As funtela said, they died from starving, you need to feed them.

Look for notifications though, someone maybe killed them.

Someone most likely got hungry and had yours as a snack

lol no I do not I have kids im 19. I did feed ghoshe I assume he was murdered in cold blood I thought there would a revive feature or something along those lines (Mar 4, 2020 11:50 AM)Geralt Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) You gotta feed the poor creatures.

I have been feeding them. I assume that he was murdered by someone, I thought there would a revive feature in place and i would lose my hackuman entirely. Makes the grind a lot less worth it if overnight I can lose all my hackuman.

TOM - March 4, 2020, 11:34 am

I had one too and its gone Now :(.

Any idea how to get it back z

de_g3ntl3m4n - March 4, 2020, 11:37 am

You gotta feed them bro they are living animalss smhh

nobody has said anything about it so far I hope eventually they put a revive feature in. if they don't the grind just isn't worth it

There's no revive or similar option, but it would be a nice idea.

Hint: Hackúman cannot starve to death at this point in time. They can starve. But not to death.

I think either someone killed it or you did not feed them. I believe you need to log in daily to get that done. Also check them daily.

Is there a quick guide which you can link as my 100 actions have been ended and I am not sure how many eggs I can hatch and keep ? Also for how long can I keep the egg without hatching it? Any specific ways to get golden or blue eggs?

So far I know that they last for 7 days and then disappear. So you need to keep a backup egg with you. Also you can keep backup eggs of golden, blue and green (one each) Just won couple of green eggs so interest in these things are coming up more.

It is good to know that. But I am not sure that lounge section only gets the eggs or all sections gives you chance to get the eggs. Hopefully today I got all eggs from lounge sections.

I hope I get a better one lol. im afraid to hatch my next egg into this cruel world considering how fast I lost my best hackumon. I really hope they put a revive feature in so I can keep collecting them.

That is true I also just realized the incubation price dropped from 100 to 10 bytes so don't even lose that much from incubating.
