Thread: New Bounty: I will pay 10,000 Bytes.

Nuworld - March 8, 2020, 12:47 pm

I will pay 10,000 Bytes to anyone who takes out/kills

Lorem Ipsum Hackúmans on page one.

I'll also give a 5000 Bytes bonus to anyone in my crew "goons" that takes out

Lorem Ipsum

10,000 bytes is not chump change.

I have all the Bytes in crypto game.

Post here with the kill.

Herbert - March 8, 2020, 12:50 pm

Big prize, let's see how long this will take.

Lavish Living - March 8, 2020, 12:50 pm

ill throw $5 btc or 1k bytes ontop of that bounty.

thanks

Can you not just act your age or maybe your are 14 ?

Stop slating people for the age that's just pure childish

You seem to think you are something special around here trust me your NOT

Every reply you make your making a pure C of yourself

Your the big man with all the money etc to pay the bills you say money no problem you own and run 2 businesses that earn you lots AND a full time job

Now is the time to prove yourself are you real and honest or just full of shit ???

Tell you what show me what you got if anything i will throw £15,000 cash GBP right down now that's all i keep in my house i have much much more but i don't brag everyday like you

But the time has come to prove yourself .. Are you a broke bitch ? if not show me ? Come on "My man " prove us all wrong about you ? ?

Don't give up bro...it's worth to find and raise another one.

Hackuman battle is really fun, you just need to act real fast to level up your hackuman once it is being hatched.

You'll just need a lot more time to build it's stats to be able to cope up with others.

The lousy and weakest one are most likely the targeted in the battle area.

Hoping to see you around with one tough hackuman :)

God bless and enjoy the game :)

How can you act fast with the limitations on actions it's near impossible .. I came on yesterday morning after the site being down .. I had not played for some 10 hours possibly a bit more i had 6 actions i incubated an egg and fed him then that was me for 1 hours 30 minutes .. By that time the egg i had hatched was taken out it's like lambs to the slaughter just now..

So if you can tell me how to level a new egg up "real fast" it would be appreciated

All you need to do is look at the award page last night i counted 154 eggs probably more now that were just sitting members are not incubating eggs because they are being killed so quickly

I really hope this changes fast because people will lose interest very quickly ?

It happened same thing for me for my 3rd egg after being hatched I just get something to eat on the fridge then when I check it out it was being targeted and killed by a tougher hackuman on the first page.

Then again when I get my 4th egg I realized that I need to work on really fast and save some of my actions which we cannot see how many more actions left for us daily only time says it all. Wishing actions left for the day my be viewed so we can strategically move on the right time.

Now my latest hatched hackuman is still alive and starting to gain some stats. I've lost 2 hackuman already but it's just fine it was part of the game.

Let's enjoy the game and don't take it so personally :)

Who's taking it personally ? All i'm saying is the actions are badly limited if you have not played for some 10 hours + Then you come on and only have 6 actions it's pointless .

But yes i agree we need to know what actions we have because coming on after 10+ hours and only getting 6 actions is not worth doing !

Now if you didn't use all your actions from a previous day surely you should have MORE actions or be able to start a fresh with 125 actions ? It seems just now you have to use your 125 actions they don't roll over that's not bad tho.. If you got a fresh lot of actions 125 well that would be good

But if you have to use the 125 actions per day this could mean you are sitting up very late at night because of limitations

I don't take anything personally i have lost eggs i have killed eggs all i'm saying is just now it's pointless incubating a fresh egg

The game is still in development and i hope things change for the better very soon

I wish you all the best of luck in the game ?

Hey I was not pertaining you when I say take it personally, It was for everyone in general who are playing and enjoying the fun this hackuman brings :)

Somebody send me messages on the conversation cursing me for taking rid out of their hackuman but most of them were the ones who tried to get my hackumans out on the battlefield I was just retaliating most of the times.

I feel the same way as you when I experienced on reserving my actions and when I am about to use them I only made 2 actions then limited for 5 hrs again, so if they will enable for us to see how many actions can take at real time then it will be much more better to strategize for our next actions.

I also wish you might find another golden egg sooner like what you've got back before a tougher one again :)

I did say "All" my Hackumans weren't killed by members.

You did kill a few but not all I'll give you that? But no other members on this forum can take credit for killing my blue guy and or my level 11 green guy.

The game is so unbalanced at this time and is why no one is hatching the green eggs.

Go ahead you guys on page one kill everyone.

The rate things have been going the game will be "game over" within 8 days.
