Quote:All schools in Illinois, including Chicago Public Schools, will be closed until the end of March as the state continues efforts to combat a growing number of coronavirus cases, Gov. J.B. Pritzker announced Friday.

The governor said all public and private schools in the state, including Chicago Public Schools, will close beginning Tuesday and stay closed through March 30.

What do y'all think about this? COVID-19 is starting to become a lot more frightening than people think. I've already had online classes scheduled from my college even before the announcement was made.

I attend Illinois State University & my spring break was recently extended to April 12th at the minimum. Personally, I'm not very fond of having my education stalled but it's not just me, it's literally everybody and it's what has to be done in order to prevent covid19 to the furthest extent. After April 12th, I'll begin online classes but it's unlikely I'll be returning to campus lol. I'm assuming classes will be extended into the summer to ensure nobody lost their money!
