Congrats bro! I've only got emerald ones so far. I'll be active more these days though so I'll try to get better eggs as much as I can.

Xtreme™ - March 15, 2020, 7:10 pm

Wow that's lovely . I lost 8 weaklings and the dream of owning a strong hackuman . All of them killed in a snap . Anyway goodluck hunting em blue and gold .

Wow that was great...you were so lucky today bro.

I haven't got any one yet for today and looking to get hoping a blue one coming soon.

I can't please Stanley to send me blue egg or much more the golden egg.

When will you planning to raise those eggs you have with you?

Looking forward to see your hackumans on the battle field :)

Have a nice day and enjoy the game :)

No bro you have to incubate the egg or it will just start to turn black i'm pretty sure it takes around 7 days then just vanishes .. Incubate the egg the game has changed and low level Hackumans have a great chance of survival now .. The higher level ones can't hit the new eggs .. Go on get it in the incubator ??

LoL you are 1 lucky lucky guy but are you just going to let them both die ? Surely incubate the blue egg that's a must but i have a feeling you will let them die .. R.I.P to those eggs .. Remember i said you should have your UID blocked after killing the first and here you are winning more LoL crazy but well done mate ?

You should really incubate that blue mate .. Let the green die lol .. But at least if you incubate the blue he will be strong and where there hatched your just using attacks to feed them .. Go for it ...

You know you will win more ?

And yet there are two now on your profile.
Don't you play the Hackuman game?
If not they will rot and die.
They're going to disappear from your profile if you don't hatch them.

They only last 7 days or so.

You should bro, give it a try...just be cautious and try to get it level up slowly

Not to use your attack in one blow limit them

It's a pity when you just left them rotten on your profile then will suddenly disappear

If there is only a shop where you could sell your egg that would be nice...what you think?

Hoping to see your hackuman on the battle bro go and incubate it and start playing again :)

Yeah bro it will be rotten...in a couple of days it will turn into black form then finally disappear.

You've got to incubate that for 10 bytes then feed for some couple of 5 bytes...i guess 4-5 times before it got hatched

Remember you need a minimum of 100 bytes to feed your Hackumans .. Best of luck ?
